

ANNOUNCING Child Welfare Traineeship Projects in BSW and MSW Programs

The Institute would like to acknowledge and thank the many Social Work education programs that responded to the announcement about the child welfare traineeship grants to be awarded by the Institute, with the support of the US Children's Bureau. There was a high number of applications, making the process heavily competitive. We were impressed by the level of interest and the expertise and innovation in the field of Social Work in relation to child welfare.

After an extensive process of peer review, and the final review and recommendations from the Children's Bureau, the following nine programs were selected for traineeship awards:

Briar Cliff University (Iowa) (BSW)

Case Western University (Ohio) (MSW)

Clark Atlanta University (Georgia) (BSW)

Portland State University (Oregon) (MSW)

Salem State College (Massachusetts) (BSW)

University of Illinois-Chicago (Illinois) (MSW)

University of Maryland (Maryland) (Combined BSW/MSW)

University of Montana (Montana) (Combined BSW/MSW)

Yeshiva University (New York) (MSW)

Letters providing feedback to each program that applied for a grant will be forthcoming in the next four weeks.

Thank you for your interest in and commitment to Social Work education and to advancing leadership and practice in the field of child welfare.
